FOR THE RECORD*

Poland-Iran: Warsaw and Tehran have agreed to exchange credit facilities, including a $103-million credit for Iran to purchase Polish machinery, equipment, and other manufactured goods to be repaid largely in oil over a 12-year period. Iran has extended a $15-million credit for Poland to import Iranian manufactured goods. A trade agreement was also reached for 1 million tons of Iranian oil to be delivered during 1973-74, half of which will be paid for in cash. [REDACTED]

North Vietnam: A party-government delegation led by Premier Pham Van Dong has left for official visits to Mongolia and North Korea. There are indications that the delegation, whose ostensible purpose is to thank the countries for aid during the war, may extend the trip to include other Communist capitals. [REDACTED]
